

Dangerous Visions (SF Masterworks)

Anthologies seldom make history, but Dangerous Visions is a grand exception. Harlan Ellison's 1967 collection of science fiction stories set an almost impossibly high standard, as more than a half dozen of its stories won major awards - not surprising with a contributors list that reads like a who's who of 20th-century SF: Evensong by Lester del Rey * Flies by Robert Silverberg * The Day After the Day the Martians Came by Frederik Pohl * Riders of the Purple Wage by Philip JosA Farmer * The Malley System by Miriam Allen deFord * A Toy for Juliette by Robert Bloch * The Prowler in the City at the Edge of the World by Harlan Ellison * The Night That All Time Broke Out by Brian W. Aldiss * The Man Who Went to the Moon - Twice by Howard Rodman * Faith of Our Fathers by Philip K.
